To Our Valued Distributors:

We are pleased to announce a new addition to our staff!

Jim Cubberly has joined us at our North American Headquarters in the new position of Product Manager. He will assist us in developing the marketing, training and support materials necessary to help you in your sales efforts.

In addition to working in sales at a fluid power distributorship, Jim has also held sales and product positions in the manufacturing companies of Lehigh Fluid Power, Miller Fluid Power and Vickers.

Join us in welcoming Jim to the staff!

Wishing you the best,

Walt Lukitsh
Sales Manager
